

A CULINARY TOUR AROUND THE WORLD

Paula Croteau, owner of "Farmhouse Kitchen" Cooking School continues "Sampling the World". Emphasis will be on "Hands on Techniques & Regional Ingredients". Don't miss the creative ideas that will transform your approach to everyday cooking. Classes are Wednesday evenings from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. All classes are held at the "Farmhouse Kitchen". The Yellow Farmhouse is located at 1450 South Harbor Road in Southold. Please bring an apron and a $30 ingredient fee to each class. Space is limited to fifteen (15) students in each class. Be sure and register early & confirm you will be attending!

SESSION A

Wednesday, January 13th, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m.

BREAD BASKET/FRENCH TOAST — What to do with left over bread & rolls!

Learn how making bread at home is simple steps with delicious results. Students will learn how to flavor, fill & grill French Toast with scrumptious results!

Students Make: Croissant cream filled French Toast with Spiced Apples & Thick White Bread filled with Bananas and Nutella.

SESSION B

Wednesday, February 10th, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m.

POLAND/POTATOES — The Polish kitchen where "Food is Love"!

My favorite Polish dishes made simply & flavorfully. Students will learn how to make perfect mashed, smashed, fried, roast & stuffed potatoes!

Students Make: Assorted Piorog & "Kapusta" Kielbasa and Sauerkraut.

SESSION C

Wednesday, March 10th, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m.

IRELAND/ROASTING VEGETABLE — Gourmet style St Patrick's celebration

This is NOT a "boiled dinner" class! Students will learn about the reliable technique of roasting vegetables, plus flavoring ideas.

Students Make: Orange Glazed Baked Corn Beef & Roasted Carrots and Napa Cabbage with Currants & Caraway.

COST:

RESIDENTS: $15/person/session

NON-RESIDENTS: $20/person/session

(plus a $30 ingredient fee to be brought to class...don't forget your apron)

LOCATION: The Farmhouse Kitchen, 1450 South Harbor Road, Southold

Space is very limited, so sign up early! *After registering, students must confirm prior to class! Please call 765-6032 or e-mail:Paula@farmhousekitchen.us.