

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE
with Mary Dempsey

The English as a Second Language (ESL) Program provides instruction for adult non-native speakers of English. This course will provide basic language and life skills to help students refine their English to prepare for higher education, or employment. The lessons covered will include pronunciation, comprehension, vocabulary, and daily life situations. Through reading, writing, listening, and speaking, improve your English speaking skills in this English as a Second Language class. Please bring pen and paper.
